1. Juneau, Alaska - Whale Watching Tour!

Monday, August 20: Docked in Juneau from 11:00am - 10:00pm

Tour departure: 11:30am (4 hours)

$149.95 per person

A unique opportunity to experience southeast Alaska's natural history and marine wildlife, this exceptional, award-winning tour is available rain or shine. While you cruise, an onboard naturalist explains the habits and habitats of the creatures you may encounter. Make sure to have your binoculars and camera ready to capture the moment when you spot Steller sea lions, harbor seals, Dall's porpoises, bald eagles, Sitka blacktail deer and, occasionally, bears. Of course the stars of the show are the whales and we are so confident in our Alaskan crew's spotting ability that if you don't see one, you will receive a $100.00 cash refund when you disembark the tour vessel. But don't anticipate a refund as whales have been spotted on every one of our tours for the past 15 years!

2. Skagway, Alaska - White Pass Scenic Rail Tour!

Tuesday, August 21: Docked in Skagway from 6:00am - 8:15pm

Tour departure: 8:00am (3.5 hours)

$134.95 per person

Built in 1898 as a way to expedite travel during the Klondike Gold Rush, the White Pass & Yukon Route Railroad is a three-foot-wide narrow gauge railroad that climbs from sea level to almost 3,000 feet in the first 20 miles. An engineering marvel, it features two tunnels and travels over sky-high trestles and bridges. The railway excursion is enhanced by the breathtaking vistas, waterfalls, mountains, glaciers and unforgettable Klondike Trail of '98, a tribute to the optimistic prospectors in search of their fortune. Be sure to grab your camera, as the train winds its way along jaw-dropping hairpin curves, over amazing plunging gorges, past sparkling waterfalls and sky-high trestles.

3. Victoria, British Columbia - Pub Crawl!

Friday, August 24: Docked in Victoria from 7:00pm - 11:59pm

Tour departure: 7:30pm (3 hours)

$89.95 per person

Steeped in tradition and history, the English-style pubs of Victoria have a uniquely Canadian atmosphere that is relaxed and friendly. Depart from port via motorcoach and visit two local pubs and a microbrewery. Sample the finest regional beers that Victoria has to offer and enjoy complimentary light appetizers at two of your stops. The people of Victoria are warm and friendly, and sharing a brew and some tasty bites is an opportunity to hear their stories and to enjoy a sense of their community. You'll feel so at home...don't be surprised if the bartender asks if you want

"your usual!"
