Exclusions

Travel insurance doesn't cover everything, and terms, conditions, and exclusions apply to all benefits under this plan. An "exclusion" is something expressly not covered by this plan. Generally, unless specifically excepted, a loss resulting from an excluded cause is not covered. Exclusions may include, but are not limited to: pre-existing medical conditions (unless you qualify for a waiver of this exclusion); losses, conditions or events that were known, foreseeable, intended, or expected when you purchased your plan (for example, a named storm, an announced strike, or an event identified by a Coverage Alert posted on our website at azcontent.us/coverage-alerts); the use or abuse of drugs or alcohol; epidemics/pandemics; war (declared or undeclared); nuclear reaction/radiation; pollution or threat of pollution; acts, travel alerts/bulletins, or prohibitions of a government or public authority; acts committed with intent to cause loss; participation in extreme or high risk sports/activities; criminal acts (unless you are the victim of the act); and others. This is not an exhaustive list, and other exclusions apply. Exclusions may vary by state and may be subject to exceptions (for example, an insured's illness may be covered even if caused by an epidemic or pandemic disease). A complete list of exclusions can be found in your plan details. Cancel Anytime coverage is also subject to certain exclusions. See your plan for details.
