Amsterdam

Day 1 – Thursday, June 29, 2028
Amsterdam, Netherlands
Departs at 5:00pm
Plan to arrive a day or two before your cruise to enjoy this remarkable northern Europe city. Amsterdam is very walkable, but feel free to join the locals on a bike tour, or enjoy a day or evening canal cruise. If visiting museums are your thing, don't miss the Rijksmuseum, Van Gogh's Museum or the Ann Frank House. And it doesn't even have to be dark to stroll through Amsterdam's infamous Red Light District, but be aware, you may see things you won't see in other parts of the world.

Day 2 – Friday, June 30, 2028
Sea Day
As the Celebrity Apex sails north to Norway, we'll have time to relax and enjoy this magnificent ship. Enjoy a private "welcome party" with your fellow travelers. Unwind by the pool, pamper yourself at the spa, savor exquisite cuisine, or discover the unique venues on board.

Day 3 – Saturday, July 1, 2028
Stavanger, Norway

Whether you prefer outdoor adventure or ancient history, Stavanger offers a wide array of treasures to discover. Its charming streets climb from the waterfront and are dotted with timber homes painted in wonderfully vibrant colors. The city is a mix of old and new, charming and stylish with an eclectic collection of merchant shops, cafes and historic museums and churches. The Stavanger Cathedral is the country's oldest cathedral, having been built between 1100 and 1125. An easy day hike on Pulpit Rock, the cliff rising over 1800 feet above the sea, offers gorgeous views of the Lysefjord and the surrounding lush terrain. Dining options in the area include outstanding fish and mussels, with French, American, Japanese, and Indian influences found throughout the city.

Optional excursions offered: Stavanger Sightseeing Tour featuring a scenic stroll through Old Stavanger, a cruise to the Lysefjord, one of Norway's most famous fjords, Stavanger's Mansions and more!

Day 4 – Sunday, July 2, 2028
Geiranger, Norway
Docked from 10:00am – 7:00pm
Geiranger is remote even by Norwegian standards, with a rugged beauty that will leave you breathless. Winding your way through the Geiranger Fjord feels like the entrance to a secret world, protected by massive, snow-capped mountains on either side. From Geiranger you can also take a side trip to Ørnesvingen or Flydalsjuvet to gaze upon this magnificence. Superlatives simply fall short when trying to describe the epic beauty of Geiranger. Your welcoming committee is comprised of the sheer walls, snow-capped peaks, cascading waterfalls and emerald-green channels of Geirangerfjord, a UNESCO World Heritage landmark. At its head, lies a charming village that plays host to outdoor enthusiasts and nature-minded tourists from all over the world. Its Norwegian charms are certainly captivating with plenty of lovely shops for souvenirs and restaurants offering up fresh salmon, lake trout, and local favorites like goat meat, reindeer, and specialty sausages. It's undeniably clear that here nature herself is the superstar. Whether it's standing before the cascades of the Seven Sisters waterfalls or climbing to one of the scenic overlooks, Geiranger is a jaw-dropping panoramic adventure.

Optional excursions offered: Geirangerfjord Views, a motorcoach and cruise along the fjord, a fjord downward bike tour, hike the trails of Norway's most spectacular fjords to Storseter Waterfall, and more!

The epic majesty of Flam's dense green mountains dwarfs even the grandest of cruise ships, and the glass-calm water that surrounds the town woos adventurers from near and far. This is place where you can't help but feel closer to nature for no other reason than it overwhelms at every turn. You'll find many restaurants and cafes offering local Norwegian fare made with farm-fresh ingredients. And you can sample the famous brown and white goat cheese in nearby Undredal.

Optional excursions offered: Climb aboard the Flam Railway for the world's steepest train ride and rumble 2,800 feet up the wilds of Norway.
